

A chairde, I'm aware that some people are having trouble viewing the newsletters on Aladdin so they will now be placed on the school website each Monday also.

Mini 7s

The girls played in the Cuman na mBunscoil mini 7s yesterday in Allenwood and won all of their games. They go on to the finals on March 13th. The Boys blitz was cancelled due to a waterlogged pitch. This will hopefully be played on Tuesday next in Clane.

The mini 7's hurlers will play in Allenwood next Thursday, if the weather allows.

Seachtain na Gaeilge

Seachtain na Gaeilge kicks off next week across the country. We are encouraging all parents to use their 'cúpla focal' at home as much as possible. I attach a sheet that might rejig some Irish phrases in your memories

A calendar of events happening around the county is attached with today's newsletter also.

The Lunch bag

As you know our school has been chosen to receive free hot meals following the Easter break. As such, 'The Lunch Bag' service will be ceasing in our school from April 8th

THE RIVERBANK PRESENTS - 'THE DIG' & 'BAKE'

Today our 1st – 6th classes were treated to a stage performance of 'The Dig' by Paul Curley here in the school.

Next Wednesday the Juniors and Seniors will watch another show called 'Bake' by the same performer.

Whats happening

Reminder: School will be closed next Friday 8th for the Referendum
First confession next Thursday 7th at 7:30pm

Green schools

There will be a Clothes collection on 19th March. The committee are also carefully monitoring the recycling bins around the school.

International Women's Day

Coffee morning in ACDAL from 12 - 1 next Friday 8th March. See attached flyer

World Book Day

Next Thursday 7th is World Book Day and as part of the school's effort for encouraging reading we are celebrating it in a big way this year! We have multiple activities going on including paired reading, readalouds, author zoom calls, a Book Doctor event and a "Read with an adult" event for juniors to 1st classes. Keep an eye on "X" for updates.

Your child will bring home a one euro fifty book token that they can redeem against any book in a participating bookshop or they can get one of the free books published specifically for World Book Day.

If you buy books on www.scholastic.ie be sure to nominate Scoil Mhuire, Allenwood as your child's school in order for us to get credit towards books and free delivery to the school for you.
