Another busy but really productive week has passed here in Scoil Mhuire with Junior Infant Parent Teacher meetings, Safer Internet Day, County Photos, Talent show qualifiers and a Bake Sale.

Confirmation Challenge - Bake Sale

First and foremost, a massive thank you to each and every person that baked, bought or bribed all of the delicious treats that we had on show today for our Confirmation Bake Sale. The 6th class children have raised over €1100 for Aoibheann's Pink Tie. Very, very proud of these young people for what they achieved today.

Anti bullying survey

With new Anti Bullying procedures coming into effect from September 1st I would like to get parental feedback on how our school deals with bullying. Please complete the survey attached with this newsletter, if you have a chance

Talent show

Our Talent Show qualifiers took place yesterday and the entries were amazing. Well done to all 40 acts on their performances. 16 students have been selected for our final which takes place on Wednesday next. Best of luck!

Frasai na seachtaine (phrase of the week)

An bhfuil a fhios agat? – Tá / Níl a fhios agam / Níl mé cinnte

Do you know? - I do/I dont know/I'm not sure

Cycleton

In the coming weeks our Parents Association will be organising a Cycleton to raise money for a few school events such as supplementing the cost of buses, tours and music classes as well as Sports Day treats and improvements to the school

Solar panels

We are having solar panels installed here in the school next Thursday and Friday, while we are on Mid Term.
