Swimming

3rd Class pupils will start their swimming lessons on Tuesday 9th January in Naas. Forms have been sent home this week. They will go for 5 weeks.

Football Finals

Best of luck to Allenwood Senior Team this Saturday in Parnell Park vs Scoil Uí Chonaill in the Leinster Final. We have lots of past pupils playing and would love to see ye return with the cup. It has been brilliant to see and hear all the excitement around the school over the past few weeks. Go n-éirí an t-ádh libh!

For all our Ballyteague fans- best of luck in the u23's final against Ellistown this Saturday.

Assembly Performance

At our whole school assembly today Mr McDonagh's class performed 'Green Green Grass.' It can be viewed on our Youtube channel at the following link:

After School Clubs

Lego Club. French Club, Irish Dancing and Board Games Club will continue right up to Christmas week.

Art Club, Chess Club and Computer Club will finish up next week and resume in late January.

Allenwood Christmas Tree

This Sunday, December 3rd, the official turning on of the Allenwood Christmas Tree lights at the cross will take place at 6.30pm. All are welcome to attend.

Online Gaming Safety Webinar

Children may be gifted with gaming devices and consoles this coming season so now is a good time to talk about gaming and how to keep kids safe online while encouraging its benefits. Follow to link below to register for a free webinar next Tuesday December 5th.

School website

You may have noticed recently that our website looks a bit different. Mr Dave Moore is busy working on it at the minute to make it more user friendly. Your efforts, as always Dave, are much appreciated.

Christmas concert

As mentioned last week, our school's Christmas concert will take place on Tuesday 19th December at 11:30am for the Junior classes and 1:30 to 2:30 pm for the Senior classes.

For those of you who cannot attend on the day, the concert will be recorded the previous week and will go up on our YouTube channel.

Our Christmas Mass is confirmed for Monday 18th December at 9:30am.
